

Busselton Jetty Swim

Swimmer Code of Conduct

Participants in the Busselton Jetty Swim are expected to always adhere to the following Swimmer Code of Conduct, not just on event day:

1. Read, accept and acknowledge the event Terms & Conditions of Entry prior to registering.
2. Always follow the Swim Rules and the Terms & Conditions of Entry. Understand that many of these requirements are in place for the safety of all participants, event volunteers, officials, staff and contractors.
3. Understand that some decisions by the Committee and event staff are made for the greater good rather than any individual circumstance.
4. Be respectful of event volunteers, officials, staff and contractors. All are giving their time to ensure the enjoyment of swimmers and the success of the event.
5. Any type of abuse including verbal, cyber or physical abuse is not acceptable at any time or through any medium.
6. Respect the rights and dignity of all involved regardless of their gender, ability, age, ethnicity, cultural background or religion.
7. Use the appropriate Race Rules and event Terms & Conditions of Entry as guidelines to resolve any dispute.
8. Follow directions and instructions from officials and volunteers on event day.
9. Be a good sport – recognise the efforts of all involved.
10. Respect our environment, including the Jetty, the beach and of course the ocean you swim in. Do no harm.
11. Participate for your own fun, enjoyment and the many benefits associated with it.

Busselton Jetty Swim is delivered by a committee of dedicated volunteers with support from contractors.

To support all volunteers and staff who work on this event:

1. The Committee reserves the right to refuse entry to any person deemed to be in breach of this Swimmer Code of Conduct, the Swim Rules or the Terms & Conditions of Entry, and;
2. The Committee will impose a sanction consisting of up to a two-year event ban for any person deemed to be in breach of this Swimmer Code of Conduct, the Race Rules or the Event Terms & Conditions.
